Connecting People to God, One Another, and the World

Welcome to Grace!

At Grace Lutheran Church, we strive to be a community of acceptance, reconciliation, and hope. Following in the way of Jesus, we welcome all people regardless of race, ethnicity, nationality, sexual orientation, gender identity, or age. God's acceptance of all compels us to stand against racism, sexism, and all forms of hate and prejudice. We welcome your questions, your gifts, and your being.

May God bless our worship, our reflection, and our ongoing discipline of Lent: self-examination and repentance, prayer and fasting, sacrificial giving, and works of love—strengthened by the gifts of word and sacrament. We invite you to join us also on Sunday mornings for worship at 9:30 a.m.

Behold Our Light

This is a setting for evening worship by Aaron David Miller, published in 2013 by Augsburg Fortress. We are using the options appropriate for Evening Prayer, but there are also options available for an evening service of Holy Communion

Please return this bulletin after the service for use in the coming weeks.

Large-print bulletins are available in the narthex.

Sustained by the Gift of the Holy Spirit

A Lenten Midweek Series

Lent is a traditionally a time the church has used for preparation for baptism. In the early church, the gospel readings for the Sundays in Lent served as a kind of catechism for baptismal candidates, who were then baptized at the Easter Vigil.

Our Lenten Midweek Series this year is devoted the prayer in the baptismal rite in which the Holy Spirit is invoked over the newly baptized and these words, drawn from Isaiah 11, are prayed: “Sustain name with the gift of your Holy Spirit: the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and the fear of the Lord, the spirit of joy in your presence, both now and forever.”

As the leader enters, the assembly stands and faces the candle.

One in Three! We praise you, bless - ed Trin - i - ty.

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

We give you thanks, O God, for in the beginning you called light into being, and you set light in the sky to govern night and day. In a pillar of cloud by day and a pillar of fire by night you led your people into freedom.
Enlighten our darkness by the light of your Christ: may your Word be a lamp to our feet and a light to our path; for you are merciful, and you love your whole creation, and with all your creatures we give you glory, through your Son Jesus Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, now and forever.
Amen.

The assembly is seated for the Evening Psalm.

Silence for reflection is kept.

Psalm Prayer

Let us pray. Almighty God, creator of the universe, we are filled with wonder at all your works and overwhelmed by your infinite wisdom. We praise you for your majesty; yet even more we rejoice that you do not forget us, and desire to know and care for us; through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.

Amen.

After the readings, silence for reflection is kept.

Jesus said, “I am the light of the world.”

“Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness.”

The assembly stands for the Gospel Canticle:

Assembly

My soul pro-claims the great-ness of the Lord, my spir-it sings for joy in God my Sav-ior. You look with fa-vor up - on your ser-vant, bless-ed is my name. You have done great things for me, ho - ly is your name. You send your mer-cy to those who fear you through ev-'ry age.
You have shown the strength of your arm, you have scorned the thoughts of the proud, you cast down the might - y, you have lift - ed the low - ly, ho - ly is your name. You have filled the hun-gry with good things, you have left the rich with emp-ty hands, you have come to the help of your peo-ple, ho - ly is your name.
You have kept your prom - ise of mer - cy, the prom-ise that you made to our fore - bears; to A - bra'm and Sar - ah and their chil - dren for - ev - er, ho - ly is your name. Ho - ly is your name. Ho - ly is your name.

The Lord's Prayer

Gathered into one by the Holy Spirit, let us pray as Jesus taught us.

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and forever. Amen.

Blessing

Let us bless the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

The almighty and merciful Lord,
the Father, the †Son, and the Holy Spirit,
bless and preserve us.
Amen.
